

CHRISTINA CLINTON

Seasoned, ROI-focused communications strategist, certified executive coach, leader and speaker accomplished in managing global, complex, highly visible issues, especially during change and crises. Engage and lead with a truly global mindset, having lived and worked in the US, Middle East and Europe. Polished, persuasive communicator; expert negotiator and liaison in high-profile, sensitive situations. Extensive experience in internal and external communications in corporate, agency and non-profit settings. Believe in fusing science and soul, and calling upon intuition, when approaching most business, leadership and personal goals.

---

Professional Experience

---

Christina Clinton Coaching + Consulting, 2018-present

New York City

Communications consultant and certified executive coach with an emphasis on leadership, change, issues, corporate communications, mindfulness and life-work balance. Coach and consult with executive and emerging leaders, corporate teams and individuals. Clients master the timeless practices of knowing, hearing, and doing so they can lead and communicate more authentically and more effectively.

Planned Sabbatical, 2017-2018

New York City

Successfully fulfilled a personal goal of taking a one-year sabbatical.

Bayer

Whippany, New Jersey

VICE PRESIDENT, GLOBAL HEAD OF MEDICAL CARE COMMUNICATIONS, 2013-2017

LEAD, PEER COACHING GROUP, 2014-2015

Drove global internal and external communications programs for $3 billion dollar franchise that experienced significant organizational changes and unprecedented market challenges. As a member of the Management Team, served as strategic communications counselor. Successfully managed communications for three organizational restructurings and two divestitures over three years. Successfully designed and rolled-out new communications channels that built trust and drove employee engagement.

Novartis Pharmaceuticals

Basel, Switzerland

HEAD, PRIMARY CARE FRANCHISE GLOBAL COMMUNICATIONS, 2012-2013

BOARD MEMBER, NOVARTIS US POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE (PAC)

Drove global communications for the $7 billion Primary Care Franchise, which included respiratory, hypertension and metabolic products across all stages of the life cycle. Responsible for supporting franchise growth through proactive communications, successfully managing issues and providing strategic counsel.

Novartis International

Basel, Switzerland

HEAD, GLOBAL INTERNAL COMMUNICATIONS, 2009-2012

COACH, HIGH-POTENTIAL COLLEAGUES TRANSITIONING TO STRETCH POSITIONS

MEMBER, NOVARTIS COMMUNICATIONS EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

BOARD MEMBER, NOVARTIS US POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE (PAC)

Drove executive internal communications for Novartis CEO and Executive Committee of Novartis (ECN) globally and across all six divisions and 140 countries. Promoted and protected our reputation globally through strategic communications targeted to our 120,000 associates. Ensured alignment of global communications strategy to support Novartis Group business priorities and targets.

Novartis Vaccines and Diagnostics*Boston, MA*HEAD, GLOBAL INTERNAL AND EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS
MEMBER, AMERICAS MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE, 2007-2009

Senior-level manager recruited to fill new position immediately following a merger and acquisition. Role was two-fold: supported communications for US commercial team planning for first product launch in highly regulated environment, and shepherded two companies into one division reaching 5,000 associates across 16 functions and eight major sites in Europe, Latin America, and the United States. Key efforts included managing communications in support of several major product launches, supporting sales communications in pre-launch phases, managing ongoing issues, working with patient groups and establishing credibility for communications across the organization.

Novartis Corporation*New York, NY*DIRECTOR, INTERNAL COMMUNICATIONS, 2006-2007

Hired into newly created role to support the US Corporate President and CEO. Largely a manage-by-influence role, successfully completed special projects for the CEO and coordinated internal communications activities across Novartis' eight business units in the US. Also managed Group Internal Communications efforts in the US.

IntelliRisk Management Corporation (now known as iQor)*New York, NY*VICE PRESIDENT, GLOBAL MARKETING, BRAND MANAGEMENT, AND COMMUNICATIONS, 2004–2006

Recruited as one of 50 top corporate executives in this 6,000-employee financial services company, and tasked with providing strategic leadership of global communications (internal and external) during time of crisis and turnaround. Managed $1.5 million budget and guided 12+ direct and indirect reports in massive rebranding and corporate culture change initiatives. Handled special projects for CEO.

Ruder Finn*New York, NY*VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE REPUTATION/ISSUES, 2003–2004

Senior counselor brought on board to provide strategic counsel and issues management for multi-industry corporate clients. Devised strategies, created supporting materials, and headed tactical implementation of communications and media solutions to protect brands and corporate reputation from potentially negative issues. Monitored and analyzed media coverage around key issues and strategized / implemented responses. Coordinated account activities with staff worldwide, including Europe, Asia, and North America. Served as agency's Middle East expert, leading to win of new account projected to generate 15% of total group revenues for 2004. Increased existing account revenues by 25%.

Consultant, 1999–2003*New York, NY / Cairo, Egypt

Strategic communications advisor to CEOs, government leaders, NGOs, religious leaders and start-ups.

The Fulbright Commission*Cairo, Egypt*RESEARCH FELLOW, 1998-1999

Awarded prestigious, competitive grant following rigorous, highly selective application process to study Egyptian classical Arabic and conduct research on privatization of tourism industry. Successfully navigated the Middle Eastern business world and completed analysis of successful marketing and business development strategies regarding tourism in Egypt and Turkey. Investigated regional economic and social development trends in the Middle East and North Africa.

Fordham University*New York, NY*DIRECTOR OF EXTERNAL AND INTERNAL COMMUNICATIONS, 1996–1998*PUBLIC RELATIONS SPECIALIST, 1995–1996

Promoted from PR position to develop and manage communications and marketing functions, including national publicity campaigns and crisis communications for undergraduate/graduate schools of arts and sciences, collaborating and interacting with 300 faculty members spanning 40 academic disciplines. Led cross-functional teams of writers, photographers, graphic designers, printers, and staff members in the fulfillment of production goals for 75 marketing publications annually.

Burson-Marsteller*New York, NY*ASSOCIATE, CONSUMER & TRAVEL MARKETING, 1993–1995*STAFF PROFESSIONAL, MEDIA PRACTICE, 1991–1993*COORDINATOR, INTERNATIONAL LIAISON DIVISION, 1991*INTERN, OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN, 1987–1991

Advanced through series of progressive positions in a broad range of PR and communication disciplines with the world's largest PR firm. Developed series of U.S.-based marketing/PR initiatives in joint effort with European, Asian, and Middle Eastern offices, including crisis communications, media relations, promotion and marketing, product recall, and trade awareness campaigns. Placed as intern at age 17 and personally mentored for higher authority by several C-suite executives.

---

Education & Credentials

---

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, Teachers College and Graduate School of Business – New York, NY

Advanced Certificate in Executive Coaching, 2018

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY – New York, NY

MA in International Political Economy & Development, 1998

ST. FRANCIS COLLEGE – New York, NY

BA in History, 1991*Courses

- The Depth Coaching Workshop, an International Coach Federation continuing education course (12 CCEs) on approaching transitions and leadership through the lens of depth psychology and intuition (co-teach).
- Clear, a course on Intuitive Intelligence and Intuition Proficiency tailored for executives and coaches and also available online.

Professional Training/Workshops

- Certified in The Neethling Brain Instruments (NBI™) Assessment, 2018
- Gestalt Training on Use of Self as Coach, 2016
- Martha Beck Wayfinder Coach Training, 2011
- Harvard University Institute for International Development and Fulbright Commission: Privatization and Multinational Affiliate Enterprises, Cairo, Egypt, 1999
- World Tourism Organization: Satellite Tourist Accounts, Nice, France, 1999
- Social Tourism in Europe and the Middle East, Beirut, Lebanon, 1998
- USAID and IBTCI: Methods of Privatization in Egypt, Cairo, Egypt, 1998

Publications

- "Investing, Licensing and Trading in Egypt" – Bi-annual 48-page report issued by The Economist magazine, 1999–2001
- "Toshka: A Tourist and Investor's Paradise" – Hospitality Egypt magazine, May-June, 1999

Contact: cc@christinaclinton.com or +1 (347) 735-0287